

Do you remember

text&music: Dănu Extrem © SUIA

Do you remember when we were still together? we were children without sorrows we played in the sunshine we didn't ask where to go

Do you remember when our hands touched for the very first time we made Love in a fresh meadow we' ve dreamt of freedom and happyness we finally slept in the Moonlight?

Now, everything is gone
now every song is sung, now, all the friends are gone now, everything is done, now now now....

Do you remember when I started my own search I belived in a future
I thought freedom is happyness I knew nothing of this eternal life?

Now, everything is gone
now every song is sung,
now, all the friends are gone
now, everything is done, now now now....
